

Impartiality Policy

The top management of Verification International manifest on the reliability of impartiality that;

Verification International Limited is committed to fulfil the following declarations;

- The certification activities will be carried out independently and independently of the interests of agencies or persons, based on objective evidence.
- will provide its services without commercial and financial pressure, which can affect the results of the certification process,
- will not affect the decision-making process of certification,
- will ensure that the audit team can not simultaneously issue a certification decision,
- will avoid the behaviour of its employees against clients, which negatively impact the reputation of its employees, organizations and certification requirements.
- will not submit any subjective comments and evaluations in the certification audit, act impartially and independently.
- will ensure that the certification decisions are made without any pressure on the complaints to be treated independently and without financial advantages,
- and Verification International employees will not carry out any consulting activities and will not advise their clients
- will not contact other certification bodies during the certification process.
- will pass on the customer information to third parties without their written consent
- will treat all information, documentation and records of its clients confidentially and ensure the secure control of these documents,

Verification International Limited
Management Board